SUBJECT: TIME Photo Albumn

REMARKS:

Herb, the DCI was very pleased with the TIME albumn and your handiwork in affixing the nameplate on the cover. He decided to keep the albumn and carried it home with him.

He likes your idea of having a copy available in his office for visitors to look at, and would welcome another copy for that purpose.

TIME marches on!

Admiral—

This is one of several albums which TIME sent—others are being distributed to those who helped most on the project.

We put the TIME masthead on the cover.

I thought you might like to either keep it as a souvenir or put on the table outside your office.
If you want it for your personal library
I have another for your writing room.

Mr. Herbert Hetu
Public Affairs Office

Dear Mr. Hetu:

AT I talked about the attached letter yesterday to your assistant, [redacted] She suggested my sending the letter to you.

We would particularly appreciate if you could expedite getting us an up or down answer on this.
The lead time in planning and publicizing an event of this kind is such that time is becoming a problem with us.

The speaker we had lined up suddenly withdrew.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading 'Orville V. Bergren', is written below the word 'Sincerely,'.

Illinois Manufacturers' Association

August 22, 1977

Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

The officers and directors of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association have asked me to invite you to participate as honored guest and principal speaker at our Annual Dinner-Meeting in Chicago on Thursday, November 17, 1977, in the International Ballroom of the Conrad Hilton Hotel.

The Illinois Manufacturers' Association has more than 5,900 member companies and plants throughout Illinois. The Annual Dinner is a glittering event attended by some 1300-1700 business leaders from Illinois and the midwest.

Because of the publicity and image problems of the Central Intelligence Agency, we thought you might be interested in speaking to our group to seek a better understanding of the CIA and its vital mission to the security of the United States. Chicago is a great news center, and your address would undoubtedly be well covered by the news media.

Our Annual Dinner-Meeting has been marked by the appearance of many distinguished Americans as our honored guests through the years. These have included former Secretary of Defense, Donald Rumsfeld; House Minority Whip, Robert H. Michel; then Governor of California, Ronald Reagan; Commandant of the Marine Corps, General Louis H. Wilson, Jr.; Richard Nixon (just before he was elected President), Secretary of Commerce, Frederick Dent, and many others.

We do hope that your schedule and your inclination will permit your being with us November 17. In any event, we would appreciate an expeditious answer to this request. I will be happy to fly to Washington to give you additional details, if you wish, at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Orville V. Bergren
